SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

While some concern was expressed earlier in the season that Lake Tahoe would suffer a dearth of business this year, those fears have vanished with the advancing vacation period and resort owners, store managers and others are reporting normal or even better than normal patronage. This patronage is well deserved. Tahoe businessmen, through their Tahoe-Sierra Association, are telling the world of the advantages available for the vacationist in the world's most beautiful playground area. In urging vacations for the Tahoe region, the boosters are not overselling the public nor offering something they cannot deliver. While the resort men and others dependent upon vacation trade are benefitting from the influx of travelers, the vacationists themselves are enjoying a visit in the best of recreation areas.

Although regrets are naturally felt over the horrible wreck of the City of San Francisco in the wild desert region of Nevada this week, only the highest praise can be offered for the sterling service of the employes of the Southern Pacific, who met the emergency in heroic fashion. Neither can doubt be expessed for the splendid equipment of the company. Investigation has revealed beyond doubt the wreck was resultant from a maniac with designs against the company, passengers or through some fanciful reason or lack of reason. Such disasters are unavoidable on the part of the railroad officials and employes who are striving at all times to meet the public demands of safety and convenience. We add our hope that the fiend or fiends responsible for the disaster will soon be apprehended.

It is gratifying to report that collections for the fish fund are coming along nicely, although the goal is still somewhat distant. Many have not been contacted but all in all the program is going along fine and Truckee will again prove that in a project worthy of support it can always be counted upon.

Considerable friction seems to have developed over Truckee's proposed Veteran's Memorial Building. This is a deplorable thing, as cooperation and unified efforts by all concerned, we feel, would bear better results than childish bickering and squabbling. We in Truckee are a part of the County of Nevada, we support and should boost it as our own, but in turn we should be treated as part of the county and share in its profits as well as its losses. We do not think that unfair requests have ever been made by the eastern portion of the county. So far as the new building is concerned, blame for deficiencies are hurled back and forth with none seemingly with a clear idea of the desires of the people who are expected to benefit from the structure.

Bowers Reports Fish Are In Fine Condition For Feeding

MONEY BEING RAISED

40,000 Now Being Fed At Rearing Pond At Club

With Truckee still considerably short with its share for their feeding and care, the first consignment of trout to be raised at the San Francisco Flycasting Club's tanks near here were received yesterday.

F. S. Powell, who is representing the chamber of commerce in raising the necessary $400 to match the club's expense in handling and raising the rainbow trout, reports that while he is still short of the required amount, money is coming in gradually and all indications point to a successful campaign.

The consignment received yesterday totalled 40,000 and another 40,000 will be received tomorrow, the balance being promised for the coming week.

Former President Bowers of the club said he had never seen such good looking trout as are being received this year, the entire allotment being uniform in size and all in fine condition, assuring a small loss.

Sierra Has "Keel" To Ward Off Possible Quake, Report

The Sierra Nevada mountains have a deep granite "keel" which blocks earthquake movements, it is reported in a recent study made at the University of California at Berkeley and presented to the Geological Society of America by Prof. Perry Byerly, seismologist for the university.

"When we discovered that the waves which normally run along the sea of the 20-mile layer were blocked off and not recorded on seismographs, we concluded that the high Sierra has a great 'root' of granite extending down into the layer below", Byerly said.

Byerly explained that theory held that mountian masses were floating in weak rock not unlike ships floating on the ocean. "Now," he said, "seismology suggests that the Sierran mass has a 'keel'."

Veterans' Hall To Be Started Next Monday

Agreement Reached After Lengthy Arguments On Project

LARGER FLOOR SPACE

Furniture Fund Diverted To Care For Hall In Truckee

Following lengthy and, at times, hot controversy, construction on the new Veterans' Memorial Building in Truckee is expected to be well under way by Monday, an agreement apparently having been reached between the board of supervisors, who control the financial side of the picture, and the building committee of the American Legion, who are to have custody of the structure upon its completion.

The board, in special meeting Monday, agreed, according to James McIver, Jr., chairman of the building committee, to increase the size of the building to approximately 40 by 74 feet, an increase of 1000 square feet over the plans submitted which were refused a week ago by the committee as unsuitable for local needs.

The increase was made possible, McIver said, through the re apportionment of money from the amount set aside for furniture, to the actual building itself. This should provide a $26,800 structure as against the suggested $23,800 building. Furniture requirements wil be handled later, it is understood.

The tentative agreement was reached after a series of conferences during which arguments waxed hot and heavy. At a meeting last Thursday, C. Edmunds, representing the civic committee of the Lions Club, and McIver argued for the additional floor space to give Truckee a suitable auditorium. Opposition by one or two members of the board was finally overcome and an agreement was reached at the meeting Monday.

Men on the job at present are removing the old stone wall and preparing for the concrete foundation.

Washington Snapshots

by JAMES PRESTON

There is a sequel to the White House "ghost' story about the mythical businessman who supposedly told the President a business boom had been nipped in the bud by Senate refusal to grant him broad neutrality powers.

Furnishing the sequel is the corps of government economists, who endeavor to keep the President, and others, posted on the future business outlook.

Hardly had the White House ghost announcement dried in the headlines when the economists came forth with their business condition prediction for the rest of the year. That prediction is that business will be better this fall and winter. That doesn't jibe with the crepe hung on the business indices by the White House "spooksman.'

In addition, this ultra-optimistic prediction of the economic seers embarasses the White House on another point. The Washington hangers-on remember that not so long ago the White House viewed with alarm the threat of a late-summer European crisis. The official viewers-with-alarm argued that much broader powers were needed for the White House to deal with the expected situation; that the problem shouldn't be left in the hands of Congress.

Now, however, the economists are making light of the "alarming situation." If they foresaw any such serious crisis as was seen by the administration big-wigs, their business predictions would not be so optimistic.

If there was ever a time when the political wisemen of Washington were in agreement on a question, it is now on the subject of the CIO vs. Vice President Garner. All agree that the beetle-browed CIO leader blundered onto a political banana peeling when he made his unprecedented attack on the popular Texan.

That the political strategists are in agreement is unimportant, however, What is important is that the event may lead to many policy reforms in Washington.

Certainly is deflates CIO influence in Congress, meaning that Congressional groups who still found it expedient to follow the will of the CIO will now find it difficult to convince more conservative colleagues that the CIO should have its way. Then, too, the National Labor Relations Board, which is about to be investigated by a Congressional committee, is expected to suffer a setback as a result. The CIO has been its chief defender.

Interesting, too, is the fact that big and little political figures alike are trying to climb into the John L. Lewis verbal spotlight. Few can be found now who want (or will accept) CIO support for re-election. Rather, they believe their chance are stronger if Lewis will attack them.

Note, here, that at a White House press conference shortly after Lewis called the vice president harsh names the Number 1 boss carefully pointed out that the CIO had also attacked him once upon a time.

But, there were broad hints that the Lewis name-calling against Vice President Garner was actually cooked up by Garner-haters within the Administration. Lewis a few days before having been a White House caller. Everyone agrees, though that if Lewis did pull his stunt while acting as a White House Charley McCarthy, he either got twisted up on what he was told to say, or should get a new ventriloquist.

COST OF LIVING NOTE: Coal prices may be higher this winter if Secretary Ickes' new Bituminous Coal Division can work out all the complex details. Here is the background.

Present transportation costs make shipment of coal by water cheaper than shipment by rail. Thus, coal shipped to consumers by water routes can sell at lower prices.

To raise the price of water-shipped coal to the level of that shipped by rail, the division is trying to work out a basing point price fixing arrangement that will force coal operators to charge more for coal that is to be shipped by water.

LOUISIANA CLEANS HOUSE

The people of Louisiana went on a glorious jag a few years ago, with their host Huey Long guaranteeing all expenses paid.

But now its goodby to all that. The skylarking party is over. In the chill aftermath of its saturnalian spending orgy, Louisiana finds itself with a severe hangover, a flock of bad checks still to be paid for, and a disordered political house very much in need of cleaning.

As they have had to do before when political corruption left its tracks in high places, the people are reaching for a broom to clean up the wreckage—and someone to wield it. Out of a welter of charges involving embezzlement, chicanery and "framed" elections, has arisen the hope of many disillusioned Louisianans that a white knight in shining armor will arise to lead their campaign of reform to victory.

Of men on horseback, Louisiana has had no lack in recent weeks. No less than four men are clamoring for popular support today as reform candidates, but the record of each is darkened by past association with the Long machine. In the cheerless light of the morning after, reform groups want no "reformed" candidate, but a courageous leader, one who has never danced to the Kingfish's tune.

Whether the crusader emerges or not, Louisianans have, at any rate, seen the sorry results of Huey's dictatorship when democracy went by the boards and representative government temporarily vanished. From now on they may be of a mind to hold on to the reins of power themselves.

HALF A MILLION JOBS

"I've got a job!" was the good nws on the lips of the 424,000 workers who marched back into private industry during the month of June. Scanning the number of participants in the back-to-work march of the past several months, the National Industrial Conference Board reported 1,142,000 persons have left the ranks of the unemployed since February. Its most recent estimate of workless workers places their number at 9,552,000, the lowest since December 1937. That trend is in the right direction.

Politically Speaking

by JOHN W. DUNLAP
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 17—(UP)—Now that the salary and support fund for the governor's office has to be audited, for the first time in history, some rather interesting facts are coming to light.

There are now 33 employes on the governor's payroll, not including the governor at $10,000 per year and his three constitutional secretaries at $5000 per year, Richard Olson, Kenneth Fulton and George Killion. These 33 persons receive a total of $5050 per month, which, added to the $537 for general expenses spent for July, goes $180 over the $7500 per month allowed the chief executive for the next biennium.

The legislature allowed a budget of $180,000 for general support, $15,000 special contingent (known as the secret service fund) and $12,000 for the executive mansion. None may be augmented from the emergency fund but the support fund is the only one to be audited. This augmenting feature was prompted by the act of former Governor Merriam in using up his $5000 secret service appropriation and making six transfers from the emergency fund for a total expenditure of $44,668.

And two days before the end of the biennium, Olson transferred $10,665 to his secret service fund.

Among the higher monthly salaries on the payroll were former Congressman John Dockweiler, legal representative, $500 (discontinued after July 15 when Congress adjourned); Joseph Donovan, assistant secretary, $300; Helen Mehlhorn, personal secretary, $200; Stanley Mosk, assistant secretary, $375; N. T. Porter, assistant secretary, $200; F. Alfred Blatz, assistant secretary, $275; Charles L. Owen, chauffeur, $200.

The governor finally got around to naming the athletic commission.. New appointees are Jerry Giesler, noted Los Angeles criminal attorney; Jules J. Covey, Los Angeles attorney with a longtime interest in athletics, and John J. Rustigan, San Francisco business man. The three replace Chairman George H. Payne of San Jose, Dr.Harry W. Martin, Los Angeles, and Dr. Peter S. McCallum, Los Angeles, principals in a recent legislature investigation of athletic affairs.

Off to a fresh start, the commission also includes Archie Closson of Lodi and Everett Sanders, Los Angeles, holdover members.

The Board of Equalization has enough headaches as it is but an all-time high would have been inevitable had Governor Olson signed the controversial bookie bill to license bookmaking on off-track horse racing. In fact, hardly had the bill been passed by the legislature than the board began getting applictaions for licenses from all over the state. None could be accepted, of course, since the bill was not law.

There were two factions of opinion within the board. One was desirous of having it go into effect and come under the jurisdiction of the board. The other side felt that if any one thing would be full of grief, it would be the bookies, who have plenty of money to spend, are just on the borderline of respectability, and have powerful political connections in many cases.

As the flood of applications increased, however, it was rather generally agreed that where one friend might be made by granting a license, many more enmities might be incurred.

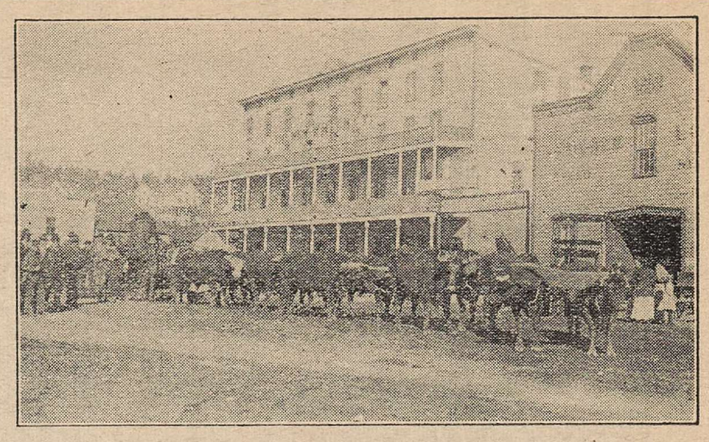
You Should've Been Here



In going over our "morgue" the other day we ran across a few old cuts of historic Truckee and thought that our readers might be interested in what we dug up. This is the first in a series that will last while our cuts and data hold out AND NO LONGER!

The above picture was taken about 1905 or 1906 when the old steam engine was transported from Polaris Ice Pond to the Truckee Winter Sports grounds to operate a toboggan tow here. The ox team is the property of Boyington Brothers, who operated as loggers and teamsters in the area for many years. The winter sports here were operated at that time by Joe Kirchner and "McDougall" Smith, then editor of the Truckee Republican.

The hotel with the overhanging balconies was the old New Whitney House, since remodeled and renamed the Riverside Hotel. The structure alongside was the old Laity Livery Stable, operated by Bill Laity, and now occupied by the McIver Garage.

(by SWANEE)

Mrs. Tejas Edwards and daughter, Elaine, left Tahoe for Southern California Tuesday. They plan to remain until fall. Because of Mrs. Edwards' absence, practice of the Tahoe Troubadors must be indefinitely postponed, another accompaniest being unavailable at this time.

Tahoe's lake level Monday was 6226.35 with 500 CSF of water flowing into the Truckee River from the Tahoe City gates.

Among Tahoe's younger set who are soon departing for colleges are the Misses Sue and Marilyn Hinkle, daughters of Professor and Mrs. Henry Hinkle, Miss Lillian Vernon daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Vernon, Charles Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Peterson, and the Misses Carol and Janice Droste, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Droste, all of whom will attend the University of California at Berkeley. Miss Dolores Pyle will attend classes at San Jose State College this coming semester.

A letter from Walter Rounsevel from the east coast declares Tahoe's weather and surroundings the finest in the world. He described eastern resorts as suffering from a lack of vacationists.

Howard Carnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carnell, celebrated his 8th birthday Monday.

Tuesday was the birthdate of little Miss Nancy Sather of Auburn, who turned four on that day at the summerhome of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Staher. Mrs. Sather landed a 4-pound Rainbow last week, her husband taking a 2½ pounder the same day.

The Floyd Carnell family in town are mourning the loss of "Sassy", a two-year-old dog who left behind a litter if three six-months-old pups.

George Stroner of Auburn is visiting at the Arthur Sather summerhome for the week.

MINOR ACCIDENTS MAR WEEK PERIOD AT LAKE

TAHOE CITY, Aug. 117—Several automobile accidents have occurred in the Tahoe region in the past week or ten days.

On Wednesday last week Mrs. Sallie Morgan of Woodland, accompanied by Mesdames Hampton Roberts, Carl Watts and Lorraine Holmes, all of Woodland, damaged her car when she attempted to make a turn near the Kaiser estate at Tahoe Pines. W. J. Herman, Oakland, a member of the attorney general's staff stationed at the present in Truckee, thinking she meant to turn right continued without slowing down. Both cars were damaged but no one was injured.

Je Pomin had his car partially wrecked when he collided with the Fontana Laundry truck driven by R. C. Gregory in front of Worden's Ward Creek Camp. Neither driver was seiously injured but Pomin sustained minor abrasions of elbow and head.

Afficer F. E. Walker, accompanied by his nephew and Constable Harry Johanson, Saturday night were contacted and requested to try to locate Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rich and daughter who were camping near Tahoe. Mrs. Rich's mother was seriously ill and relatives wanted her daughter to know. After waking up campers for miles around, the family was located sevn miles on the other side of Miller Lake and notified.

Friday night Mrs. Josephine Ainsworth of San Francisco, 32, accompanied by W. C. Little and his daughter of Berkeley, badly damaged her car when it skidded and turned over several times near the overpass on the Truckee River Road. The accident occurred near the Burnham summer home. The car was badly damaged but no one was hurt.

Tourist Robbed, Beaten At Tahoe Vista Thursday

LAKE TAHOE, Aug. 13—Tim Curtis, vacationing at Tahoe from Long Beach, was found in a dazed condition in his car as the result of severe body and head injuries near Tahoe Vista Friday after his wife notified officers he was missing.

Officer F. E. Walker found Curtis in his car parked off the roadway in a thicket. His head was badly buised and he was hardly able to talk.

Curtis told officers that he visited a resort on the Nevada side of the lake Thursday night where he gambled and had a few drinks. He reported that two men took him and his car to the place where they were found. He said he was slugged and beaten and robbed of $80.

Walker reported that the car had been ransacked.

Tahoe Church Group Has Service In Community Hall

TAHOE CITY, Aug. 17— Rev. G. J. E. Keetch of Truckee and Bishop Brown of Sacramento were speakers at the first meeting of the community church group which held services in the community hall Sunday evening between 7:30 and 8:30 p. m. for the first time. This will be a regular service for the balance of the summer.

Little attempt will be made to build the amphitheater on the slopes near the lakeshore until next spring, according to the church board.

Charles Worsham accompanied by his wife, rendered several vocal selections.

U. S. WEBB TO LEAD FORCES AGAINST $30 WEEKLY RELIEF PLAN

With a challenging appeal to California citizens, in every walk of life, to enlist in the campaign against the so-called Ham and Eggs amendment, former Attorney General U. S. Webb this week characterized the 30-Thursday pension proposal as "a one-way road to ruin and bitter disillusionment."

"If the voters approved this plan," asserted the former attorney general, "California would face a depression compared with which the tragic consequences of the existing depression would be insignificant."

Webb, state chairman of the campaign against the Ham and Eggs act, which will appear on the ballot at the special election on November 7, announced that Northern California Citizens Against 30-Thursday—the organization which will conduct the election battle in northern counties—has opened headquarters at 111 Sutter Street, San Francisco.

Clem Whitaker, San Francisco publicist and advertising executive, has been appointed a northern California campaign director and stated that volunteer citizens' groups will be organized at once in every northern county.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17—Unanimously condemning the "Ham and Eggs" proposal, the San Francisco County Central Committee of the Townsend Party went on record this week as strongly opposed to the 30-Thursday plan, which will appear as proposition Number 1 on the special election ballot, November 7.

Emphasizing the stand of Dr. Frances Townsend, father of the national pension movement, the resolution quoted Dr. Townsend as wollows:

"State pension plans cannot possibly succeed. They can only put the whole movement in disrepute, for no state, single handed, can pay an adequate pension. Attempted state pension plans are the worst possible setback to the pension cause."

BUY LOT

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wagner purchased a lot last week from the Tahoe City Realty Company located on the southside of the Wagner Auto Camp, Lake Tahoe, where they plan to make improvements on their property.

Andy Johnson Takes Over Popular Tahoe Eating Place

Andy Johnson Saturday took over the Ta-Neva-Ho Restaurant near Brockway and is now operating the popular eating place as well as maintaining his position with Cal-Vada Lodge.

Johnson is widely known in the North Tahoe district where he has long been a resident and his friends will be pleased to learn that he has taken over the restaurant.

He reports that although he has had charge only a few days, business is gaining fast and customers are well pleased with the arrangements.

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

tention of the Board of Equalization is what to do about the liquor license situation. One of the longest and most extended fights in the legislature was over the subject of liquor control, particularly the limitation of licenses. The Swing omnibus bill was finally defeated and what was left of the other minor measures fell by the veto method. The result was a total lack of major change in the liquor laws despite a conscientious attempt by representaties of the liquor industry to clean up the trade.

It is understood the board is seeking to correct what it believes to be an undesirable situation by contemplating adoption of a ruling which would in effect accomplish the ends sought in the bill vetoed by the governor. This would have some curb, either by population or arbitrary maximum, to prevent the situation from getting out of hand.

It will be interesting to see what administrative action is taken to plug the loopholes left unfilled by the legislature.

ALBINO DEER IS FOUND IN LASSEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17—An oddity in the animal kingdom, an albino deer, was reported this week in Lassen Volcanic National Park by Superintendent John C. Preston to the National Park Service regional office.

The albino, a Columbia black tail fawn, is being studied by park naturalists under difficulties, but present information reveals it to be at least two months old. It is of a true white color, even including the hooves which are ordinarily black. It has been seen a number of times in the Kings Creek Meadow section with its mother and twin, the colorings of both of which are normal.

While albino deer are not unknown in the deer family as a whole, having been observed in the Pacific Northwest in comparatively recent years, the Lassen albino is believed one of the first, if not the first, recorded in California.

Inadequate Wiring

Small electric wires in homes are causing our customers to lose many dollars

The Utility District has spent many hundreds of dollars to bring the proper voltage to your building. Beyond the meter is where the loss occurs.

The District cannot deliver the proper quality of electricity to your lamps or appliances if your wiring is inadequate (too small or in poor condition).

Your lamps will not burn as brightly as they should; your iron, toaster or cooker will not heat as fast as they should, and your refrigerator, radio or washing machine will not operate as efficiently if your wiring is too small. BUT your meter will keep running just the same.

Call the electric contractor in and have him check your wiring and give you an estimate on bringing it up to standard. Have him put in a few extra convenient outlets while he is there.

NORDEN

THE SIERRA SUN, Truckee, Calif
Gentlemen:

Of especial interest to Norden and community were the surprise marriages of Miss Norma Hensley of Tunnel Six to Claude Miller of Vanderford's and also that of Miss Carmen Gonzales of Colfax to Albert Newman of Vanderford's, who slipped quietly to Reno Sunday and were married by the justice of peace in a nine a. m. ceremony. The young couples reside at Fox Farm for the time being where the men are employed by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. Mrs. Miller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Okla Hensley of Tunnel Six while Mrs. Newman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Garcia of Colfax and formerly of Norden.

Mrs. Frank Rector and Mrs. C. W. Kramer of Norden plan a lodge night in Truckee as do Mr. and Mrs. Dee Bowen, on Tuesday evening.

Much progress has been made in the Sugar Bowl area with the completion of the road to Sugar Bowl Lodge and a four inch water line completed this week. The foundation is being laid out for the lodge with a pathway cut to the top of one of the peaks for a ski pull which promises to be in operation for the coming winter. Hannes Schroll, who represents many San Francisco and Los Angeles capitalists, is in charge of the work at this time. Many of the officials and men working on this project are located at Vanderford's. When completed most skiing experts are of the opinion that Sugar Bowl will surpass Sun Valley in Idaho. Many novel improvements are promised which have not heretofore been attempted in this section in snow sports.

Norden Store has completed many improvements for the comfort and convenience of its customers and has greatly enlarged their space to care for increased business. Danzger and Fredericks, assisted by their wives, and Quentin Queen offer the best in service.

Yours truly,
C. W. Kramer
